

Enrolments Policy

1 Purpose

CEDAR Centre is committed to providing quality training and assessment in accordance with the Standards for Registered Training Organisations \(SRTOs 2015\). As such, CEDAR Centre is required to comply with relevant Commonwealth, State and Territory laws regarding and including antidiscrimination and equal opportunity. CEDAR Centre is committed to providing the best practice, professional products and services to its participants and acknowledges it can only succeed in this with effective and efficient quality processes.

The purpose of this policy is to provide fair and equitable process for participant enrolment and ensure participants are provided with accurate and sufficient information to make an informed choice about their enrolment and chosen course.

2 Policy Statement

CEDAR Centre is committed to ensuring all participants enrolling on courses are treated fairly and equitably, and are clearly informed of the enrolment process, conditions, details regarding their chosen course, rights and obligations.

CEDAR Centre will provide prospective and current participants with advice regarding relevant training products to meet their needs, taking into account the individual existing skills and competencies.

4 Policy Principles

4.1 Information to Participants

- a) Prior to enrolment each client is provided with access to a Participant Handbook, Course Information, and participant policies. (See Participant Information Policy)

4.2 Enrolment of Individual Participants

- a) Enrolment into training programs will be conducted at all times in an ethical and responsible manner, ensuring fairness and compliance with the CEDAR Centre Access & Equity Policy.
- b) Enrolments are subject to availability of places on the training program, based on the maximum number of participants who can be accommodated under the particular circumstances (e.g. safety, capacity of training venue, type of course, learning structures etc within program).
- c) As an RTO we do not accept fees in excess of $1500 through a third party directly or through a current learner.
- d) All prospective participants will be provided with information regarding the RTO and its course, in accordance with CEDAR Centre Participant Information Policy.
- e) CEDAR Centre will review the individual needs of each prospective participant, taking into account their existing skills and competencies, advising them of the most appropriate training product to meet their needs.
- f) If a training program is fully booked at the time a participant enquires about enrolment into that particular training program they will either be placed on a 'Wait List' or offered a place on another date that the program has been scheduled, which is not fully booked.
- g) Participants on the 'Wait List' are given priority should a place become available. This is strictly on a first-in, first-served basis.
- h) Enrolments will be considered tentative until payment and the Student Identifier has been received. Should enrolment numbers reach maximum, and another person wishes to enrol on a course where there is a tentative enrolment the tentative booking will be contacted to confirm payment. If payment is not made the place will be given to the new participant.
- i) All participants enrolled on courses are advised in writing, upon receipt of their enrolment form and payment, that their place on the course is confirmed.

- j) Course fees are payable in advance (subject to Financial Management Policy – Course Fees).

4.3 Special Needs of Participants

- a) Participants intending to enrol for training are requested, to advise of any physical or other impairments/ needs (eg English language difficulties, dyslexia) which may adversely affect their ability to successfully undertake the training. (See Access & Equity Policy)

4.4 Language, Literacy and Numeracy Abilities of Participants

- a) Participants intending to enrol for training are assessed on their language, literacy and numeracy abilities to determine their capability to successfully undertake the training and determine whether any additional support is needed. (See Access & Equity Policy)

4.5 Student Identifier

- a) All participants are required to provide their Unique Student Identifier, in accordance with requirements of Student Identifier Act.
- b) Participants will be advised on the process of obtaining a Student Identifier if they do not already have one, via <http://www.usi.gov.au/Pages/default.aspx>
- c) CEDAR Centre will verify and maintain all Student Identifier Numbers in its Student Management System (WiseNet).

4.6 Group Enrolments (Corporate participant / Employer)

- a) CEO CEDAR Centre negotiates course requirements with relevant company participant representative.
- b) Written confirmation is required to confirm course booking with names of individual participants included.
- c) Individual enrolment forms are required for all individual participants to secure a place.

4.7 Recognition

- a) Mutual Recognition, Credit Transfer and Recognition of Prior Learning are acknowledged and accepted as a standard practice of CEDAR Centre. (See Recognition Policy)

4.8 Confirmation of Enrolment

- a) Upon acceptance of enrolment the participant is provided with written confirmation of their enrolment, including a schedule for training and assessment dates, times and location of training (as relevant to mode of learning).

4.9 Changes to Training and Assessment

- a) Any changes to a training program, services or third party provider will be advised to participants, as soon as possible prior to the date the change is to occur.

4.10 Cancellation of Courses

- a) It is NOT CEDAR Centre normal policy to cancel scheduled training programs.
- b) However, if for some unforeseen reason a course is cancelled or postponed, all participants will be offered the opportunity to attend the training program on another date, at another location (if available) or in another delivery mode.
- c) If, in the event that the participant does not accept the offer, or for some reason the offer cannot be made, the course fees will be refunded in full within one week of the date of the cancellation of the course. (See Refund Policy)

4.11 Refund for Cancellation of Enrolment by Participant

- a) Refunds can be provided, in accordance with CEDAR Centre Refund Policy. (See Refund Policy)

4.12 Transfer of Enrolment

- a) Transfer to another “Course date” – Participants are able to transfer to another course date, providing they make a request in writing a minimum of one week in advance. The transfer is subject to course availability.
- b) Transfer to another “Course” – Should a participant wish to transfer to another course, they need to make the request in writing a minimum of one week in advance. The transfer is subject to course availability.
- c) Transfer to another “Delivery mode” – Should a participant, enrolled in a course, wish to transfer to another “delivery mode” for the same course they are able to do so providing they make a request in writing a minimum of one week in advance. An administration fee is applicable for all transfers to another course delivery mode. The transfer is subject to course availability.
Should a participant wish to transfer to another delivery mode and does not provide written notice at least one week in advance, the participant forfeits the full course fee.
- d) Transfer to another “Participant” – Prior arrangement no later than one week prior to the course. An administration free is applicable for all transfers to another participant

4.13 Participant Records of Enrolment

- a) CEDAR Centre is obligated to report all enrolments, in compliance with national reporting requirements. (See Management of RTO Policy)
- b) Individual participant records are created for each enrolment and maintained for a period of 30 years. (See Records Management Policy)

- c) All individual participants have access to their own records, and the progress of their learning. This is enabled through the Student Management System (WiseNet). (See Records Management Policy)

4.14 Fees

- a) Fees are collected in accordance with the Fees processes. (See Financial Management Policy)

4.15 Student Induction

- a) CEDAR Centre provides participants with induction/orientation to ensure they have appropriate information to facilitate their interactions with CEDAR Centre and their learning.
- b) Each participant receives a copy of the CEDAR Centre Participant Handbook which outlines key information including their rights and responsibilities as a participant.
- c) All participants sign an acknowledgment that they have received, read and understood CEDAR Centre policies and details within the Participant Handbook.
